

Catie O'Leary Bio

The images in my collages are original engraved illustrations from antique books. The meticulously cut-out pieces become puzzle pieces in my selection process creating a chain of associations.

In 2019, I fortuitously had solo exhibitions at the Fresno Art Museum and the Monterey Museum of Art. I was a visiting artist in 2018 at the American Academy in Rome and an artist in residence during the summer of 2013 at the Oberpfalzer Kunsterhaus in Fronberg, Germany.

I am currently represented by Jack Fischer Gallery in San Francisco. I have exhibited in many California venues including the Braunstein/Quay Gallery in San Francisco, Stanford Art Spaces at Stanford University, Palo Alto Art Center, Bedford Gallery in Walnut Creek and the Morris Graves Museum in Eureka, California.

A California native, I live in Pacific Grove, California.
